

great food, fine wine, quality meetings

did you know there's a meeting and event venue with the quaint serenity of a vineyard, the comfortable luxury of a world class resort, and the convenient one-stop accessibility to the technology business leaders' need when traveling away from the office FIND it's located right in our own backyard?

Conveniently located just about an hour away in Temecula's wine country, businesses are discovering that South Coast Winery Resort & Spa is the perfect location for inspiring business dreams and letting imaginations soar. Highly trained staff can create the flawless outing for you; while superb cuisine is assured in the meeting and function rooms, the private dining room in the popular Vineyard Rose restaurant, as well as at any catered event in one of their majestic vineyard settings.

So whether you're looking for a confidential session, a high-profile launch, or a unique team building or incentive reward retreat, flexible indoor and outdoor function space and intimate barrel rooms offer the freedom to perfectly tailor/design your meetings to accommodate 5 to 1,500 people. See for yourself the endless possibilities that await you at South Coast Winery Resort & Spa. Located at 34843 Rancho California Road, Temecula, California. Phone: (951) 587-9463 CODE OC360.

